‘EVIDENCE OF READING, READING THE EVIDENCE’
21-23 July 2008

A major international conference organised by the Open University and the Institute of English Studies, University of London

Keynote Speakers: Kate Flint, Jonathan Rose, David Vincent
Roundtable Speakers: Simon Eliot, Mary Hammond, Leah Price, James Raven, Helen Small, Naomi Tadmor

Fasciculus temporum, Werner Rolevinck, [Rougemont]: Heinrich Wirtzburg, 1481, Senate House Library, Incunabula 76
By kind permission of Special Collections, Senate House Library, University of London

Location: Institute of English Studies, Senate House, Malet St, London WC1E 7HU

Events: Proceedings will include a round table discussion on the future of the history of reading, the launch of Version 2.0 of the Reading Experience Database, and a welcome reception, sponsored by Adam Matthew Digital.

Further details and registration: please see http://www.open.ac.uk/Arts/RED and http://ies.sas.ac.uk/events or contact Jon Millington, Institute of English Studies: tel +44 (0)20 7664 4859, email jon.millington@sas.ac.uk

By kind permission of Special Collections, Senate House Library, University of London