2. Summary of duties

Main Purpose of the Post

Responsible to the Commercial Legal Services Manager, to work in partnership with Business Units to provide high quality legal advice to the University and its subsidiaries. The successful applicant will support research, curricular and commercialisation activities by drafting, reviewing and negotiating a wide range of agreements. The majority of these agreements relate to collaborations with other universities and companies. Knowledge and understanding of commercial contracts is essential. Some knowledge and understanding of legislation relating to public procurement, in particular the Public Contracts Regulations is also required. Experience relating to governance, compliance (including GDPR) and University policies and regulations would be useful.

Description of Duties of the Post:

- To provide legal advice and support Units when submitting bids, responding to invitations to tender and requests for quotations).
- To draft, negotiate and review contracts for the provision/sale of goods, services and research to third parties (including international), and when procuring services on behalf of the University, ensuring that the University is protected commercially and intellectually.
- To provide legal advice to University Units, Faculties and subsidiaries on a range of commercial legal issues, consistent with contract negotiation, such as data protection, freedom of information and procurement. Whilst detailed expertise may be outsourced when necessary, the ability to advise across a range of commercial legal subjects is essential.
- Communicating, under supervision, legal options and advice.
- To provide support to the Research and Enterprise Office in relation to Knowledge Transfer Partnerships and other research specific activity. Experience of negotiating EU consortium agreements re EU funding would be particularly useful.
- To assist members of staff with regard to the protection and exploitation of Intellectual Property.
- To undertake such other duties as may be assigned by the Commercial Legal Services Manager, Group Accountant or Finance Director from time to time in furtherance of the objectives of the University and/or its wholly owned subsidiaries, which may include the provision of ad hoc legal advice.

The successful applicant will be expected to attend meetings with senior University staff to offer guidance and support as and when required.

The successful applicant will have the ability to deal with people with varying levels of legal understanding, ranging from lawyers to other legal and non-legal staff with the ability to absorb legal concepts and apply this to practical situations.

In carrying out these duties the post-holder will liaise with Accountants, Human Resources, intellectual property experts, VAT specialists, Estates and other staff at all levels within the University.

Note

Although the successful applicant will have no responsibility for handling cash, the financial consequences of failure on the part of the successful applicant to perform the duties outlined above in a timely and accurate manner could have significant financial and legal consequences for the University and/or its subsidiaries.

5. About the unit/department

The Finance Division provides accounting, procurement and commercial legal services to the University, helping to make best use of resources and fulfilling statutory responsibilities.

The Division has an open and supportive ethos.

The Finance Division is responsible for the overall running of the finances of The Open University under policies approved by Council on the recommendation of the University's Finance Committee. It operates under the Financial Regulations with which all units, staff and subsidiaries must comply.

The Division is headed by the Finance Director, and organised into three sections:

- Directorate
- Accounting Services
- Treasury Services

The Open University has a global budget of £400m.
ABOUT THE ACCOUNTING SERVICES TEAM

The section is responsible for providing accounting information and support to the University and its budget holders, for preparing the annual financial statements and for providing commercial legal services.

- Accountants and lawyers support a highly devolved budget holder structure
- Accountants have high profile contact outside the Division
- Accountants are involved in internal meetings of the units they support
- Accountants support institutional financial modelling, unit financial planning, budget setting, monitoring and reporting
- Accountants provide advice on VAT and other taxation matters in conjunction with the Taxation Manager
- Accountants manage the financial relationships with subsidiary companies
- Accountants and lawyers draft, review and negotiate contracts for services provided by the University

The Accounting Services Team is a dynamic, well motivated group who operate in a team-working environment combining professionalism with informality. Individual accountants enjoy considerable autonomy in doing their jobs, with significant personal responsibility and authority.

ABOUT THE TREASURY SERVICES TEAM

The University processes a large volume of financial transactions and the Treasury team seeks to achieve this accurately in a timely and cost-efficient manner. The team seeks to maximise working capital and invest available financial resources with financial institutions in a way that protects capital and generates a reasonable return. The Procurement Department procures goods and services in the most cost effective manner and where necessary in accordance with current EU Procurement Directives. The payroll department processes the University’s payroll for all full time staff, Associate Lecturers, most worldwide staff and subsidiary company staff. This department also administers travel and subsistence claims. The pensions team sit alongside the payroll team. Treasury Services also ensures compliance with VAT regulation and completes and submits VAT returns, and manages the University insurance.

The section also incorporates the OUSBA team who have direct contact with our Students relating to their loan arrangements.

The team comprises a range of committed staff providing an invaluable service to other staff and Units within the University and we take pride in providing a high quality service.

As an employer, the University offers a wide range of sporting and cultural facilities and activities, and both the University and the Division have active social programmes. The University also offers its employees the opportunity to study its courses free of charge (subject to certain conditions).
