2. Summary of duties

External Engagement Team

The External Engagement team is responsible for implementing the External Engagement strategy which supports the diversification of revenue and builds the reputation and profile of the Law School and the Business School, a key indicator of which is the retention of triple accreditation. The team manages the Alumni Relations programme for business and management graduates, as well as the School’s integrated communications programme that includes the delivery of digital development, events, corporate communications and internal communications. In addition to these areas, the External Engagement team is also responsible for philanthropy, and corporate partnerships on behalf of the Faculty and working with central OU teams in the area.

Main Duties:

The External Engagement Coordinator works primarily on events, web and social media coordination, but also has responsibility for wider team support and administration.

The duties of the External Engagement Coordinator are detailed below.

Events support

Provide support to the events programme, including:

- Preparing collateral for events such as name badges, delegate lists, prospectus and other literature and marketing materials as required.
- Recording delegate data on relevant systems, including Alumni database Stratum and other systems as required.
- Attending events and providing on-site support to the External Engagement Manager (this may involve domestic and limited international travel).
- Editing presentations, ensuring compliance with brand guidelines and industry best practice.

Digital Development Support

Provide support to the digital development programme, including:

- Editing websites and blogs (for internal and external audiences)
- Maintaining image libraries to support the Digital Development Manager and Internal Communications Manager.
- Preparation of eNewsletters and eShots.
- Supporting webinars and online events, including attending rehearsals and events.

Alumni Relations Support

Provide support to the Business School Alumni, including:

- Providing administrative support to the Alumni Council an acting as a focal point of contact. Arranging meetings, pre-reading material, academic attendance and follow up actions. Book accommodation and travel as necessary and reimburse expenses.
- Support Alumni Council projects.
- Co-ordinate and deliver the Business Schools Mentoring Programme.
- Provide Alumni content for the OUBA Alumni monthly newsletter and construct the OUBS Careers
Co-ordinate the professional knowledge bank including proofreading and editing alumni articles and engaging and promoting accordingly, business book competitions and alumni webinars.

- Update the alumni webpages with relevant information, including events and recruitment guides.
- Developing alumni metrics reports.
- Collaborating with other teams to improve alumni services.

External Engagement coordination

Provide administrative support for the External Engagement programme, including:

- Recording External Engagement metrics on a monthly basis.
- Providing accurate information and advice to telephone enquirers, students, staff and external organisations.
- Monitoring External Engagement mailboxes and dealing with queries within agreed timescales on behalf of the External Engagement team, elevating queries if necessary to the Manager and Senior Manager as appropriate.
- Creating publications, including reports, for internal and external use.

Other

- Act as a flexible member of the External Engagement team.
- Carry out tasks as specified by Senior Staff, appropriate to grade

5. About the unit/department

Faculty of Business and Law

The Faculty of Business and Law is one of the four faculties of The Open University. It brings together two Schools – The Open University Business School and The Open University Law School – and has a strong reputation as a high-quality and innovative provider of management and legal education. Our courses and qualifications are studied by a wide range of people from all backgrounds – we are proud to promote opportunity and social justice by making higher education open to those unable to attend a more traditional campus-based university.

Student satisfaction is a high priority and we are determined to deliver the best outcomes for everyone studying with us. Our students return some of the highest satisfaction scores in the National Student Survey – they have ever since the NSS began.

Around 35,000 students are currently enrolled on our business, management and law programmes; about quarter of them are based outside the UK in 80 countries. The majority of our students are employed and study part-time with us.

The Faculty employs around 130 academic staff, two thirds of whom are based at The Open University’s Milton Keynes campus and one third in the OU’s regional offices, aligned to the Faculty’s three Student Support Teams. The regional academics manage the Faculty’s 700 Associate Lecturers. Around 80 academic-related and administrative members of staff support the Faculty.

We are committed to developing our staff to achieve their full potential and offer a range of formal and informal training and development opportunities to support individual and Faculty objectives.
The Open University Business School

Founded in 1983, The Open University Business School holds a unique position as the leader in flexible, accessible and high quality business and management education. It is one of an international elite group of institutions to have triple accreditation by EQUIS, AACSB and AMBA.

The School has four cross-disciplinary academic departments: Strategy and Marketing; Accounting and Finance; People and Organisations; Public Leadership and Social Enterprise. The School offers a wide range of undergraduate, postgraduate, doctoral and executive education programmes.

The 2014 Research Excellence Framework (REF) results show the high quality of the research output and impact of the School’s research. The School ranked 34th overall placing it in the top third of UK Business Schools. For impact, the School was placed 16th overall, indicating not only the excellence of the research but also its influence and relevance to user communities in all areas from practice to policy.

Further information about The Open University Business School can be found at: http://business-school.open.ac.uk

The Open University Law School

The Open University Law School was established 17 years ago and since then more than 60,000 students have studied law with us. With around 6,000 students in the UK, the Law School continues to lead the sector in part-time distance learning. Our Bachelor of Laws with Honours (LLB) is the most popular taught undergraduate law programme in the UK. The average age of our law students is 35. The School also offers a Postgraduate Certificate in Human Rights and Development Management and a Masters in Law (LLM).
