2. Summary of duties

MAIN PURPOSE

The Strategic Talent team is part of the Talent and Development area of expertise in Human Resources. The team has accountability for building diverse and sustainable talent solutions in alignment with the HR strategy and the people and capability agenda. As an area of expertise, they will ensure an expert, high impact service is delivered across its talent priorities. The Senior Talent Adviser will develop, implement and embed practices and programmes that support the development and progression of our people in order to meet the future and changing University needs. This includes Strategic Leadership Development, Succession and Strategic Resource planning, Early Talent (e.g. apprenticeships and graduate schemes) and Coaching.

1. Contribute to the University Talent Strategy and translate into an operational plan e.g.

- Work with the Strategic Talent Manager to set the University wide strategy for talent, through proactively researching both tangible and intangible workforce information and business intelligence (metrics and external scanning and benchmarking).
- Translate the overall strategy into operational plans and projects to be delivered across the University to meet the strategic priorities.
- Undertake detailed research and benchmarking activities to continuously evolve and develop plans to ensure initiatives meet the changing needs of the University and best practice.
- Proactively manage the performance and development of the Talent Coordinator(s), to ensure delivery of the strategy.

2. Manage Projects and Programmes effectively from conception to evaluation
e.g. Diagnose, design, implement and evaluate cost effective, high impact talent planning and development initiatives that meet individual and University strategic needs.

3. Manage and develop suppliers efficiently and effectively and manage associated budgets and KPIs
e.g. Identify and manage preferred suppliers (internal and external), ensuring KPIs are agreed and measured effectively and ensure implementations are supported by, efficient and effective business processes.

4. Manage the governance for talent initiatives by developing related policies and procedures
e.g. Navigate and assess requirements, collaborating with Areas of Expertise to develop and implement related policies and procedures. For example, employment terms and conditions and reward.

5. Collate, analyse, assess and present talent data to report back on results and make recommendations on improvements and future initiatives
e.g.

- Prepare and present evidence based business reports.
- Undertake regular monitoring.
- Contribute to, and report on Management Information and Key Performance Indicator data. Maintain and update records.

6. Create, develop and test support, guidance and marketing materials required for the successful implementation initiatives and projects
e.g.

- Identify and match a range of approaches and media to deliver the specific outcomes required for
