2. Summary of duties

This is a senior management role in the Marketing Unit responsible for leading Marketing efforts on identification, evaluation & implementation of strategic growth opportunities, as well as ensuring that the Marketing Director and SLT can be assured of the Marketing Unit’s likelihood to meet its business targets by leading and delivering the Unit’s strategic business planning. The role is responsible for:

- Identification, sizing, evaluation, implementation and review of strategy projects that enable rapid progress against market opportunities
- Leading the Unit Business Planning cycle for Marketing
- Coordinating the Marketing input to the Student Number Planning process to ensure University commercial targets are appropriately stretching and well grounded
- Delivering timely and high quality management information that includes recommendations to improve performance and therefore increases the certainty of achieving Unit strategic and commercial objectives

The post holder reports to the Head of Marketing Strategy & Insight and is a member of the sub-unit Management Team. The role holder may be required to deputise for the Head of Marketing Strategy & Insight.

STRATEGY (70%)
- Development and/or implementation of strategic framework for the identification of growth opportunities
- Create understanding of the issue or opportunity by producing and gaining agreement to clear strategy project briefs.
- Carry out robust strategic, economic, financial analysis of multiple data sources in combination with customer insight, capability and feasibility analysis to evaluate and size opportunities and develop clear and justifiable recommendations.
- Take the lead across the Unit and wider University to develop approaches for taking advantage of opportunities. Ensure the approaches are deliverable by grounding strategies into plans that are implemented.
- Create high quality inputs (e.g. presentations and documents) that enable effective stakeholder management interventions. This includes VCE, Senate, Council, Executive Deans and Directors as well as Marketing Heads of Sub Unit and other senior colleagues across the University.
- Lead the Student Number Planning process on behalf of the Marketing Unit, ensuring the Unit’s input to this institutional process are grounded in market insight (from Senior Product Managers and the Marketing Strategy and Insight Team) and agreed with Marketing Senior Leadership Team.
- Scan media and industry sources to identify marketing, advertising, HE recruitment trends and the competitive landscape that may impact or enhance The Open University’s marketing/brand proposition.
- Bring new ideas and concepts forward to develop innovative and effective solutions to business and marketing challenges.
- Maintain regular dialogue with outside partners to develop skills, technologies, processes and information sources that support the Marketing Unit and its success.

5. About the unit/department

A career in marketing at the Open University is like no other, a unique and well-loved brand, we make higher education open to all and support over 200k students every year to achieve their goals and change their lives.

Marketing is leading the way in widening the Open University’s appeal to ensure that our brand is as relevant today as it was at our launch in the 1960’s. We are at a hugely exciting point of our evolution, recognising the need to innovate, challenge and disrupt to increase relevance and recruit more new students each year.

That’s why we’re always looking for equally inspirational people to join us. We want expert marketers with digital, mobile, social media, data, analytical and insight skills but most of all we want marketers who’ll challenge us to use the latest technologies and techniques to improve performance, drive new approaches and keep us cutting-edge whilst, of course, being a customer champion and keeping our students at the heart of all our activities.
