SOCIAL POLICY RESEARCH CENTRE
25 YEARS AT THE CUTTING EDGE OF RESEARCHING
DIVERSITY, MIGRATION AND INEQUALITIES

Wednesday 4 March 2015
Venue: Hendon Town Hall, Committee Room 3, the Burroughs, London NW4 4AX

2.00 - 2.30 - Registration and coffee

2.30 - 2.45 - Welcome
Prof Waqar Ahmad (Deputy Vice-Chancellor Academic) and Prof Joshua Castellino (Dean of School of Law)

2.45-3.00 - The origins and development of the SPRC: Prof Susanne MacGregor and Prof Rosemary Sales

3.00-3.30 - SPRC research on migration and inequalities: Introduced by Prof Eleonore Kofman
- Rethinking family migration theory and policy - Prof Eleonore Kofman and Dr Helena Wray
- Researching migrant families and education - Prof Louise Ryan and Dr Alessio D’Angelo

3.30 - 4.00 - SPRC supporting and engaging with diverse communities: Introduced by Dr Alessio D’Angelo
- Ethnic Minority and Women’s Organisations: opportunities and challenges - Dr Elena Vacchelli
- Assessing needs, evaluating services (Hounslow Project) - Dr Lisa Clarke
- Using official statistics to map communities and change - Neil Kaye

4.00 - 4.30 – Book Launch
- Louise Ryan, Umut Erel and Alessio D'Angelo (2015)
  Migrant Capital: Networks, Identities, Strategies, Palgrave

Other recent books include:
- Brad K. Blitz (2014)
- Dominic Pasura (2014)

4.30 - 5.00 - Tea break

5.00 6.30 - Prof Louise Ryan’s professorial lecture
‘Getting worked up about Networks: how to make friends and influence people’

Followed by drinks and buffet