University that works for you

Our courses are designed to flex around your life, so you can study in a way that suits you best. It's just one of the reasons why we're the most popular choice for part-time undergraduate students in the UK.

Learn on your terms

Learning with us is flexible and supportive, guided by expert tutors every step of the way.

We'll give you all the essential course resources and materials you need. Plus, our Student Support Team is on-hand to help you if you need advice.

- Decide when and where you learn.
- Fit study around your other life commitments.
- Fund your studies in a way that suits you.
- Keep on earning while you learn.

Learn from the best

With our network of more than 4,700 expert tutors, you'll receive innovative, insightful teaching from subject specialists. Many combine their teaching work with academic or industry roles.

Spark your imagination

See your favourite subjects brought to life with the latest in learning innovation. From textbooks to virtual learning environments, from home experiments to award-winning state-of-the-art remote labs, you'll study using a variety of digital and physical resources. So, however you learn best, we'll keep you inspired.

Additional study support

Did you know that we support more disabled students than any other UK university? We'll provide access to tools and guidance, and ensure you get the appropriate level of support to make the best of your studies.

Connect with like-minded students

Though it's distance learning, it's anything but distant. There are plenty of ways to connect with our active student community, including online discussion groups and tutorials. You can also connect with us on social media or join one of the many informal social media groups set up by your fellow students.

When you register, you'll become a member of our Students Association. It's a great way to meet fellow students, take part in societies and help influence University decisions. See how to get involved at oustudents.com.

How do we compare with other universities?

An OU qualification is just as rigorous and respected as one from a campus-based university, and is highly valued by employers. What's different is our unique approach to learning, which means you can study alongside your job or other commitments.

Bringing university to you, wherever you are

We've continuously developed our supported distance learning method for over 50 years. Our resources are designed so that you can fit a high-quality university education around your busy life.

With the OU, you can study whenever and wherever suits you.

We're respected

Our globally recognised qualifications will give you the skills and confidence employers are looking for. A combination of education and experience is highly sought after and can greatly enhance your employment prospects. Studying with the OU allows you to put what you learn into practice immediately. You'll be able to show you're dedicated, driven and committed – qualities that are valued in any workplace.

We're flexible

There's no such thing as a typical OU student. You'll decide how and when you want to study. Our tutors and Student Support Teams are used to helping students balance study with other commitments.

We're open to all

We believe that with the right support, preparation and guidance, many people are capable of succeeding in higher education. That's why there are no formal entry requirements for most of our undergraduate courses.

Looking for postgraduate study? Find out the entry requirements at openuniversity.co.uk/pg-ready.

We're a thriving community

You'll be joining one of the most diverse, dynamic and inclusive student communities. Whatever your goals, we're here to help and champion you to fulfil your ambition.

More than 200,000 students study with us each year. Come and join them.

Qualifications to suit you

With over 200 qualifications to choose from, whatever your goal, it's possible with The Open University. You can study towards a degree or start with a certificate or diploma and build on your studies as you go.

Undergraduate

Certificate of higher education

Get a general grounding or improve your understanding of a subject area.

Diploma of higher education

Expand your knowledge and improve your skill set in a specialised area.

Foundation degree

Focus on a subject related to what you're doing now, in either paid or voluntary work.

Named degree

Complete modules in a specific subject to earn an honours degree and open doors to a new interest or career.

Open degree

Design your own honours degree and include modules from different subject areas to suit your needs and interests.

Postgraduate

Postgraduate certificate

Ideal for professional and career development, this is the first step towards a masters degree as well as being a valuable qualification in its own right.

Postgraduate diploma

Work towards a widely recognised qualification that is equivalent to two-thirds of a masters degree.

Masters degree

Study modules towards an internationally respected qualification while gaining specialist academic, professional, or technical skills.

Welcome to Psychology and Counselling

Our School of Psychology and Counselling is the UK's largest provider of university-level education in psychology. Here you'll be introduced to various approaches to research and learn about the scientific study of the human mind, behaviour and people in social contexts.

Studying Psychology and Counselling with us will allow you to:

- ▶ be eligible to claim the Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership on completion of one of our BPS-accredited degrees
- ▶ develop essential transferable work-related skills, including problem-solving, critical thinking and reasoning, statistical analysis and research methods
- ▶ apply your learning to real-world problems and situations, such as criminal investigations, race and gender equality, relationships and therapy.

You'll benefit from expertise across a range of different faculties, as members of the School work in close collaboration with academics in the Faculty of Wellbeing, Education and Language Studies, and the Faculty of Science, Technology, Engineering and Mathematics.

Undergraduate

At undergraduate level, we offer a range of certificates, diplomas, a foundation degree and honours degrees.

Four of our qualifications are BPS-accredited single honours degrees:

- Psychology
- Forensic Psychology
- Social Psychology
- Psychology with Counselling.

You can also study psychology in combination with another subject, such as criminology or philosophy.

Diplomas and certificates of higher education are available in Psychology and for some subject combinations, like Criminology and Psychology.

Our Counselling degree has been developed in consultation with accredited awarding bodies and has been designed to allow you to claim 'Therapist B' competencies according to the SCoPEd framework.

A Foundation Degree and Diploma of Higher Education in Counselling are also available where you build on your previous training from the Counselling and Psychotherapy Central Awarding Body (CPCAB).

Please note some psychology module content addresses sensitive topics which might be upsetting.

It has been a lifelong dream to have a higher education degree. The OU allowed me the flexibility of having higher education without compromising on quality. Learning with the OU has given me more confidence in my knowledge and in my life. It has been a life-changing experience.

Ferny Suhandi
BSc (Hons) Social Psychology

Postgraduate

At postgraduate level, we offer three MSc degrees and one postgraduate certificate: the MSc in Psychology includes cognitive, social, forensic and counselling psychology, and the MSc in Forensic Psychological Studies, where you'll examine real life criminal cases as you learn about a broad range of forensic psychology topics. Our Postgraduate Certificate in Social and Psychological Inquiry can be the starting point for either of these masters degrees.

If you've completed an undergraduate honours degree and are seeking an accredited programme of study to support your career goals, our MSc in Psychology (Conversion) offers Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership with the British Psychological Society.

Credible qualifications, valued by employers

Achieving Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership of British Psychological Society (BPS) is the first step towards the professional qualifications required to become a Chartered Psychologist. Four of our undergraduate honours degrees and the MSc in Psychology (Conversion) are accredited to provide this.

While studying BPS-approved Psychology qualifications you can become a BPS student member, which can be invaluable for keeping up to date with changes within the profession and for networking opportunities.

The MSc in Psychology and MSc in Forensic Psychological Studies offer the opportunity to develop critical appraisal skills in evaluating psychological research and practice, as well as your ability to clearly communicate to different audiences.

Our Counselling qualifications will help you to develop as a professional counsellor. By the end of your studies, and with appropriate practice, supervision and personal development, you should be able to apply for accreditation with a number of professional bodies such as the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy.

Boost your career prospects

The Psychology and Counselling qualifications build vital skills and attributes that employers value very highly, such as collaboration, digital literacy, analysis, initiative and self-awareness. Whether or not you later choose to pursue postgraduate vocational training as a practitioner psychologist or counsellor, studying these subjects can also be the first step towards exciting job opportunities, postgraduate study and vocational training in a range of professional areas, such as:

- market and social research and data analysis
- mental health, third sector and community support roles
- guidance and advisory roles
- marketing communications and public relations
- psychotherapy and counselling
- policing roles
- youth services, teaching and social work
- human resources, recruitment, selection, management and training roles.

Building your qualification

Undergraduate

When you study with the OU, you don't need to commit to a full degree. We offer certificates, diplomas and foundation degrees too. Each qualification is valuable in its own right, so you can complete a certificate and stop there or use it as a stepping stone to a diploma or degree.

You'll need to build up credits to gain your qualification. Here's how it works:

The different stages

You'll need to complete:

- one stage for a certificate of higher education
- two stages for a diploma of higher education or foundation degree
- three stages for an honours degree.

To complete each stage, you must build up a set number of credits.

The credits you need

- You'll need at least 120 credits to complete each stage.
- You gain credits by successfully completing modules.

The modules available

- With each module you pass you'll earn a set number of credits, usually 30 or 60.
- Modules are either compulsory or chosen from a range of options.

Access module<sup>1</sup>

An optional module to build your confidence and prepare you for further study.

How does it work?

Watch our quick guide on how credits work and how you can build your undergraduate qualification.

Visit
openuniversity.co.uk/ug-qual

Postgraduate

Postgraduate qualifications are made up of a set number of credits.

You'll need:

- 60 credits to gain a postgraduate certificate
- 180 credits to gain a masters degree.

You build up credits by successfully completing modules. Modules are either compulsory or chosen from a range of options.

Getting started

All you need to do is choose your qualification and register for a module that counts towards that qualification.

Pattern A – MSc in Forensic Psychological Studies, MSc in Psychology

60 credits
at postgraduate level.

Postgraduate Certificate in Social and Psychological Inquiry

A further 120 credits
at postgraduate level, totalling 180 credits.

Masters degree

Pattern B – MSc in Psychology (Conversion)

90 credits
at postgraduate level.

A further 90 credits
at postgraduate level, totalling 180 credits.

Masters degree

Prepare for study with an Access module

We're different to other universities because we're open to people based on their potential rather than prior qualifications. Our students come from a diverse range of academic backgrounds, so we offer a choice of starting points depending on how confident you are in your study skills.

You can dive straight into a qualification or if you want to try out university study or feel you need to learn how to get back into studying again, an Access module could be a great first step. It can also help you find out more about your interests and where you want your learning to take you.

Not sure where to begin? Find the best starting point for you by visiting openuniversity.co.uk/ready.

Access modules are currently only available for students resident in the UK, Channel Islands, Isle of Man and Ireland.

How Access modules work

Each week you'll work through a mixture of online and printed module materials, including online quizzes and written assignments. At the end, you'll demonstrate your learning by completing a final written assignment. There's no exam.

You'll have a dedicated tutor, who'll provide academic support via email and one-to-one phone tutorials. Your Student Support Team will be on hand to help with everything else, from study advice to guidance on fees and funding.

Access modules start in February, May and October and usually last for 30 weeks. Each week requires around nine or ten hours of study. If your Access module has the fast-track option, you can increase your study time and complete it in just 18 weeks.

What you need

You'll need a phone and a computer with internet access. You'll get access to your module website, and your books and other printed materials will be posted to you.

Visit our website if you would like more information on what you'll need for your chosen course.

What you can study

Each Access module covers relevant topics and develops the skills you'll need as you continue your chosen qualification.

Psychology, social science and wellbeing Access module (Y034)

Explore some of our most popular subjects such as psychology, childhood and youth, early years, health and social wellbeing, sport, education, and social sciences. Each area is introduced and explained at a gentle pace, perfect if you want to get to grips with something new.

Also available as Psychology, social science and wellbeing Access module: fast-track (YXFT034) from February 2025.

We offer three other Access modules, which are more relevant to other subject areas:

- Arts and languages Access module (Y031) – also available as Arts and languages Access module: fast-track (YXFT031)
- Business and law Access module (Y035)
- Science, technology and maths Access module (Y033) – also available as Science, technology and maths Access module: fast-track (YXFT033).

You could study for free

Depending on eligibility and availability of places, you could apply to study your Access module for free.

To qualify, you must:

- live in the UK (excludes Channel Islands and Isle of Man) or have a British Forces Post Office address and
- meet the income threshold criteria, for more information visit openuniversity.co.uk/ug-access, and
- have not completed one year or more on any full-time undergraduate programme at FHEQ or CQFW level 4/ SCQF level 7 or above, and not completed 30 credits or more of OU study.

Once you've started the registration process, we'll contact you about your payment options. This will include instructions on applying to study for free if you are eligible and funded places are still available.

For further information, visit openuniversity.co.uk/ug-access.

How much does an Access module cost?

The cost depends on where you are resident. If you live in:

- England, it's £909
- the Channel Islands or the Isle of Man, it's £934
- Ireland, it's £873
- Northern Ireland, it's £290
- Scotland, it's £297
- Wales, it's £328.

You can pay upfront by debit or credit card, or by bank transfer. Or spread the cost with an Open University Student Budget Account – there's more about this on page 21.

If you're studying an Access module as part of an OU qualification and you live in England, Wales or Northern Ireland, you could cover the cost with a student loan – for more information, see pages 18–19.

If you haven't studied before, do an Access module. It gives you a chance to get a view of the subjects, and it will certainly help going forward.

Steven Sutherland
OU student

Students who start with an Access module are more likely to be successful when they advance to OU Stage 1 study.

How long your qualification will take

We give you the flexibility to choose the amount of study you want to take on each year. That means you can get the qualification you want in a timeframe that works for you.

Undergraduate qualifications

Most of our students study part-time, gaining 60 credits a year. That's like studying at half the rate of a full-time course at a campus-based university. If you want to complete your study at full-time equivalent intensity, you'll need to gain 120 credits per year.

The guide below gives you an idea of how long your qualification could take.<sup>1</sup>

<sup>2</sup> Study time is the period between starting your first module and completing your last module. It doesn't necessarily include the time we need to release your module result(s) or award your qualification.

<sup>3</sup> All OU students are considered part-time students. This remains the same even if you choose to study at a full-time equivalent intensity.

Postgraduate qualifications

How long it will take to get your qualification depends on how it's structured and the number of credits required. All of our postgraduate courses are offered as part-time study and the typical timescales for individual module completion are shown below.

- 60 credit module – nine months.
- 90 credit module – ten months.
- 120 credit module – twelve months.

The guide below gives you an idea of how long your qualification could take.<sup>4</sup>

<sup>4</sup> Some qualifications follow a different pattern of study. See individual descriptions on our website for more information.

<sup>5</sup> Study time is the period between starting your first module and completing your last module. It doesn't necessarily include the time we need to release your module result(s) or award your qualification.

Have you studied before?

If you've studied at university level before, you could count this study towards an OU qualification. This could save you time and money by reducing the number of modules you need to study.

Supporting you to succeed

You're never alone when you're studying with The Open University. Your community of expert tutors, advisers and fellow students are here to support you every step of the way.

For each module, you'll have a dedicated tutor who'll be your first point of contact for any queries. They'll lead regular tutorials, mark your assignments, provide detailed written feedback, and give study support through email, online, or over the phone. And expert advisers from your Student Support Team can help with any other support needs you experience as an OU student.

Our Students Association, OU Community forums and range of societies and groups mean you're connected to one of the UK's largest student communities.

There is a community at The Open University. Everyone supports each other. One tutor that really inspired me was Michael. His words of encouragement gave me a confidence boost. My grades just kept on improving and improving.

Joe Acaye
OU student

Your Students Association awaits

The Open University Students Association is a lot like a student union. It's run by students, for students, and can help you make the most of your OU experience. You'll automatically become a member and there's no fee. Here are just a few ways you can get involved:

- Find like-minded students by joining a club, society or support group.
- Meet other students online or at an in-person meet-up near you.

- Take part in our Freshers events to help welcome you to the OU family.
- Volunteer or become a student representative to have your say.

Your Association is led by a team of elected students and is supported by hundreds more, all dedicated to creating a wonderful community and representing all OU students.

To find out more, visit oustudents.com.

How you'll learn

With regular tutorials and an online hub to manage your studies, you'll have everything you need to succeed.

Once you've registered, you'll have access to your StudentHome website where you'll be able to:

- see an overview of your course and the modules you're studying
- submit your assignments
- choose and enrol on your next module
- visit our Help Centre
- access your virtual learning environment.

The virtual learning environment or 'module website' contains all the online study resources you'll need, including:

- a week-by-week study planner
- an assessment section, giving details of your assignments and their due dates
- the tutorial booking system
- your online tutorial room
- module forums where you can discuss topics with other students and complete collaborative work online
- PDF and accessible formats of your module materials and resources.

Our assessment methods

Depending on your course, we'll use a blend of written assignments, oral and practical assessments, projects, exams, dissertations and portfolios. For more on assessments, visit openuniversity.co.uk/assessment.

What you need

To study with us, you'll need:

- a computer with internet access. If you haven't got access to one right now you could receive financial support to help you buy one
- a good grasp of the English language. We teach our courses in English. If you're not sure whether your English is at the right level, go to openuniversity.co.uk/englishlanguage for help and guidance.

Nearly there

Read on to discover more about how we can help you fund your studies and the qualifications you could achieve.

Undergraduate fees and funding options

How much does it cost?

You'll fund your studies on a module-by-module basis, so you won't have to pay for your whole qualification upfront. We've given you an idea of the costs below:

FOR THOSE LIVING IN ENGLAND

Credits each year	Cost per year <sup>1</sup>
60	£3,636

WHAT'S INCLUDED?

Your module materials, tuition, assessment and exams are all included in our module fees. There are some additional costs that aren't included.

- You'll need your own computer and internet access.
- For some modules, you may need to buy additional set books, such as fiction books or a language dictionary.

- A handful of our courses include a residential school. For these, there may be an additional cost. You'll also need to fund the cost of your travel.

Funding your studies

ENGLAND

Part-Time Tuition Fee Loan

The best way to fund your undergraduate studies, regardless of age or income, might be with a student loan. In fact, 80% of OU students in England fund their studies this way.

Key facts

- You don't have to pay anything upfront. Repayments only start when your salary exceeds the income threshold, which is currently £25,000.
- Repayments are deducted automatically from your salary.
- You can pay off the loan early without any penalties.
- Any balance outstanding is written off after 40 years.

Here's how your monthly student loan repayments could look:

Income each year before tax	Monthly repayment <sup>8</sup>
Up to £25,000	£0
£27,000	£15.00
£30,000	£37.50

<sup>8</sup> Repayments are based on what you earn, not what you owe. You'll repay 9% of what you earn over £25,000. For example, if you earn £27,000, you'll repay £180 that year (9% of £2,000). That's just £15.00 per month.

NORTHERN IRELAND

Part-Time Tuition Fee Grant

You could be eligible for up to £1,230 a year. The money you receive isn't a loan – you won't need to pay any of it back. The amount you'll be awarded is determined by your household income and the rate at which you study.

Part-Time Tuition Fee Loan

If you're not eligible for the grant, or if it doesn't cover the full cost of your tuition fees, you can pay in full or in part using an alternative payment method, such as a Part-Time Tuition Fee Loan.

Course Grant

You may also be eligible for a non-repayable Course Grant of up to £265 a year. It's intended to help with course-related costs, such as a computer, internet access or stationery.

SCOTLAND

Part-Time Fee Grant

You could qualify for a Part-Time Fee Grant and top-up funding from the OU to cover 100% of your course fees. You'll likely be eligible if your personal income is £25,000 or less, or you're on certain benefits, and you're studying at least 30 credits a year. The fee grant and top-up funding aren't loans, so you won't need to pay any of it back.

WALES

Part-Time Tuition Fee Loan

The best way to fund your undergraduate studies, regardless of age or income, might be with a student loan. In fact, 80% of OU students in Wales fund their studies this way.

Key facts

- You don't have to pay anything upfront. Repayments only start when your salary exceeds the income threshold, which is currently £27,295.
- Repayments are deducted automatically from your salary.
- You can pay off the loan early without any penalties.
- Any balance outstanding is written off after 30 years.

Here's how your monthly student loan repayments could look:

Income each year before tax	Monthly repayment <sup>9</sup>
Up to £27,295	£0
£29,000	£12.79
£34,000	£50.29

<sup>9</sup> Repayments are based on what you earn, not what you owe. You'll repay 9% of what you earn over £27,295. For example, if you earn £29,000, you'll repay £153.45 that year (9% of £1,705). That's just £12.79 per month.

Maintenance grants

You could be eligible for up to £4,500 a year to help with living costs. The money you receive isn't a loan – you won't need to pay any of it back. The amount you'll be awarded is determined by your household income and the rate at which you study.

Maintenance loans

You'll also be eligible to apply for a non-means-tested maintenance loan, should you need it, to 'top-up' the financial support you've received from grants.

Self-funded study

If you're not eligible for student loan or grant funding, or you live outside the UK, we offer a range of other funding options.

OUSBA loan

Pay your fees in instalments with a loan from Open University Student Budget Accounts Ltd. See page 21 for more information.

Card payments

Pay for each module with a debit or credit card in one quick, simple payment.

Mixed payments

Combine your payment options to fund your studies the way you want.

Other support

Carers' Bursary<sup>10</sup>

If you provide unpaid care for a friend or family member who cannot cope without your support, you may be eligible for a bursary of £250 to support you with your study costs.

Care Experienced Bursary<sup>10</sup>

If you have been in the care of a Local Authority at any stage of your life, you may be eligible for a bursary of £250 to support you with your study costs.

Care Experienced Scholarship<sup>10</sup>

If you have been in the care of a Local Authority at any stage of your life and are 25 or under, you may be able to study a full undergraduate qualification for free.

Carers' Scholarship Fund<sup>10</sup>

If you are, or have recently been, an unpaid carer, you may be able to study a full undergraduate qualification for free.

Disabled Students' Allowance<sup>10</sup>

You could receive financial support to help with study costs associated with your disability.

Disabled Veterans' Scholarships Fund<sup>10</sup>

If you've been injured in, or due to, military service, you could be eligible for funding to complete a full undergraduate or postgraduate qualification.

Employer sponsorship

Your employer could partially or fully pay your module fees.

Sanctuary Scholarship<sup>10</sup>

If you've been displaced from your homeland for political, economic, ethnic, environmental, or human rights pressures, you could be eligible to study for free.

Scholarship for Black Students<sup>10</sup>

If you identify as being from a Black background, you could study a full undergraduate qualification for free.

Study-related costs<sup>10</sup>

If you're on a low household income or receive certain benefits, you might be eligible for additional funding for study-related costs, such as travel, internet access and stationery.

<sup>10</sup> UK residents only.

Postgraduate fees and funding options

How much does it cost?

You'll fund your studies on a module-by-module basis, which means you won't have to pay for your whole qualification upfront. To find the total fee for your qualification, visit our website.

WHAT'S INCLUDED?

Your module materials, tuition, assessment and exams are all included in our module fees.

There are some additional costs that aren't included.

- You'll need your own computer and internet access.
- For some modules, you may need to buy additional set books, such as fiction or theory books.
- A handful of our courses include a residential school. For these, you'll need to fund the cost of your travel.

Funding your studies

ENGLAND

Postgraduate loan

You could be eligible for a maintenance loan of up to £12,471 from Student Finance England.

- Loans are non-means-tested, so eligibility isn't based on your income.
- The money is paid directly to you.
- You'll get your first instalment after you've paid for your first module and started studying.
- Payments are spread across two or three years.
- Repayments only start when you earn more than the income threshold (currently, £21,000).
- You'll repay 6% of your income over £21,000. So, for example, if you earn £25,000, you'll repay only £240 that year (6% of £4,000). That's just £20 a month.
- Payments are deducted automatically from your salary.
- Any balance outstanding after 30 years is written off.

To be eligible, you must:

- be resident in England
- be under 60 years old
- be studying a masters degree that can be completed in no more than three years
- not currently have a masters degree or equivalent
- be studying your qualification from the beginning.

WALES

You could be eligible for financial support from Student Finance Wales to help with your postgraduate studies. Specific details of the available funding are expected to be confirmed in Spring 2024. Please check our website for the latest information.

NORTHERN IRELAND AND SCOTLAND

Postgraduate loan

You could be eligible for a tuition fee loan of up to £6,500 from Student Finance Northern Ireland or up to £7,000 from the Student Awards Agency Scotland.

- Loans are non-means-tested, so eligibility isn't based on your income.
- There's no upper age limit.
- Payments are spread over either two or three years, depending on your chosen qualification.
- Repayments only start when you earn more than the income threshold (currently, £22,015 in Northern Ireland and £27,660 in Scotland).
- You'll repay 9% of your income over the threshold – so, for example, if you earn £30,000 and live in Scotland, you'll repay only £210.60 that year (9% of £2,340). That's just £18 a month.
- Payments are deducted automatically from your salary.

To be eligible, you must be:

- resident in Northern Ireland or Scotland
- studying for an eligible postgraduate qualification.

Self-funded study

If you're not eligible for loan or grant funding or you live outside the UK, we offer a range of other funding options.

OUSBA loan

Pay your fees in instalments with a loan from Open University Student Budget Accounts Ltd. See right for more information.

Card payments

Pay for each module with a debit or credit card in one quick, simple payment.

Mixed payments

Other support

Carers' Bursary<sup>1</sup>

If you provide unpaid care for a friend or family member who cannot cope without your support, you may be eligible for a bursary of £250 to support you with your study costs.

Care Experienced Bursary<sup>1</sup>

If you have been in the care of a Local Authority at any stage of your life, you may be eligible for a bursary of £250 to support you with your study costs.

Creative Writing Scholarship<sup>1</sup>

If you identify as being from a Black background, you could be eligible to study our MA in Creative Writing for free.

Disabled Students' Allowance<sup>1</sup>

You could receive financial support to help with study costs associated with your disability.

Disabled Veterans' Scholarships Fund<sup>1</sup>

If you've been injured in, or due to, military service, you could be eligible for funding to complete a full undergraduate or postgraduate qualification.

Employer sponsorship

Your employer could partially or fully pay for your module fees.

Grant funding

We offer access to a database of over 600 non-OU funding bodies offering grants for postgraduate students studying or looking to study, a masters, PGCE or research degree.

OU bursaries<sup>1</sup>

If you've already completed an OU undergraduate degree, you could receive a bursary to help lower the cost of your postgraduate study.

Study-related costs<sup>1</sup>

If you're on a low household income, or receive certain benefits, you might be eligible for additional funding for study-related costs, such as travel, internet access and stationery.

Open University Student Budget Account (OUSBA)

Some students fund their studies through a loan from OUSBA. You'll be offered this option when you register with us – as long as you're resident in the UK, European Union, Switzerland, Norway, Iceland, Andorra, Liechtenstein, Monaco, San Marino or Vatican City State.

Here's how it works

OUSBA will pay your fees to The Open University. You can then choose to repay OUSBA:

- in a single sum before your course starts. There's no interest to pay with this option
- in monthly instalments of up to a year. With this option, interest does apply.

The interest rate is fixed for the duration of the course (representative APR 5.1%).

If you're worried about affordability or a poor credit history, you can apply for a joint loan application with a third party. This could be with a partner, sibling or friend, for example.

As a responsible lender, OUSBA carries out affordability checks as part of the application process.

We've based the qualification start dates on the first module(s) you can study as part of your qualification.

What is British Psychological Society accreditation?

The British Psychological Society (BPS) sets out requirements for psychology degrees that it accredits as the first part of training to become a professional psychologist. These include specific subject areas that must be studied, training in research methods and the completion of independent empirical work at OU level 3.

If your career plans include becoming a professional psychologist, which may require further training at postgraduate level, then you should choose a BPS-accredited degree.

If you've completed an undergraduate honours degree, our MSc in Psychology (Conversion) offers Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership with the BPS.

BSc (Hons) Psychology

As psychology is the study of the mind and human behaviour, it touches every aspect of our lives. This degree explores key questions around why we do the things we do and how we interact with others.

You'll explore how psychologists use research evidence to contribute to debates on forensic psychology, mental health, relationships, child development, employment and much more.

You'll gain knowledge and understanding of different areas of psychology, develop valuable analytical and communication skills, and enhance your ability to work both independently and collaboratively. This will put you in a strong position when it comes to employment opportunities.

Why this qualification?

- Build your knowledge and understanding of a broad range of core topics in psychology.
- Focus on your own areas of interest such as child psychology, counselling, forensic psychology, mental health, or sports psychology.
- Gain valuable analytical and communication skills that help to enhance your employability.
- Develop your ability to work both independently and collaboratively.
- Can be the first step towards professional accreditation as a psychologist.

Accreditation

This degree is designed to deliver the requirements for the Graduate Basis for Chartered Membership (GBC) of the British Psychological Society (BPS). To be eligible for GBC you must achieve a 2:2 or higher.

BSc (Hons) Forensic Psychology

What makes people harm others? What is a psychopath? How can victims of crime be helped? Forensic psychology explores these and other relevant questions relating to psychology, crime and justice.

This degree begins by providing a broad understanding of the core areas of psychology and progresses through a range of applied psychology topics before focusing on counselling and forensic psychology. You'll also have the opportunity to undertake a forensically orientated research dissertation in the final module.

By completing this degree, you'll gain a practical understanding of psychology as well as advanced analytical and communication skills, while enhancing your ability to work both independently and collaboratively. All of which will prove invaluable to your career development.

Why this qualification?

- Covers key concepts, theories, methods and debates in forensic psychology.
- Gives you an appreciation of different perspectives within psychology and the ability to evaluate them critically.
- Builds advanced analytical and communication skills and enhances your employability.
- Relevant to careers in the criminal justice system, the care and resettlement of offenders, victim support, crime prevention and social justice.

Please note that to practise as a forensic psychologist requires postgraduate-level training.

Meet our academics

Professor of Psychology Catriona Havard's main focus of research is facial recognition. Her eyewitness research has led to the development of new techniques to reduce the false identification rates that can lead to wrongful convictions. Even hairstyles can make more of an impact than we realise. Her recent research indicates that hair might be an important cue for unfamiliar face matching tasks and can influence own-race bias in facial identification.

BSc (Hons) Social Psychology

In this degree you'll consider how social psychology can be applied to contemporary life. You'll explore psychology more broadly, gaining insights into people's behaviour.

Why do good people do bad things? What does it mean to be a good citizen? What role do digital technologies play in our relationships? How have gender identities changed? And has globalisation made people across the world more similar, or do old differences persist? You'll examine these and many other important psychological questions about the relationship between individual psychology and the complex social world.

The Open University has a long-standing reputation for cutting-edge research in social psychology. You'll draw on this research strength to consider debates on a wide range of social issues including equality, prejudice, migration, and happiness and well-being.

And you'll learn how psychology is critical to understanding employment, mental health, and relationships.

Why this qualification?

- Explore how social psychologists study people as social beings in different contexts.
- Investigate the connections between individual lives and social problems.
- Gain an appreciation of different perspectives within psychology and the ability to evaluate them critically.
- Prepare for a wide range of career opportunities including social justice, public policy, media and communications.
- Can be the first step towards professional accreditation as a psychologist.

Meet our academics

Professor of Cultural-Developmental Psychology Sarah Crafter's main focus of research is on how young people's and family migration experiences impact on everyday lives and childhood. She has co-created a new online course for social care professionals who work with Unaccompanied Asylum-Seeking Children (UASC) and separated or lone migrant young people. This grew from her Children Caring on the Move (CCoM) project, which investigates separated child migrants' experiences of care, and caring for others, within the immigration and welfare systems in England.

BSc (Hons) Psychology with Counselling

Psychological therapies are rooted in psychological understanding, so this degree combines a strong foundation in psychology with a specific focus on how counselling works and how it can help people change.

You'll consider how counsellors and psychologists use research evidence to contribute to debates on different counselling approaches, mental health conditions, diagnosis and treatment options.

You'll also discover how psychology is critical to understanding mental health, relationships, education and employment.

Why this qualification?

- Covers the key concepts, theories, methods and debates in psychology and counselling.
- Gives you an appreciation of different perspectives within psychology and the ability to evaluate them critically.
- Explains how psychological theories and research are applied, particularly within counselling practice.
- Can be the first step towards professional accreditation as a psychologist.

Please note that completion of this degree does not qualify you to practise as a counselling or clinical psychologist, psychotherapist or counsellor, as further training is required to work therapeutically with clients.

BA (Hons) Social Sciences (Psychology)

This flexible degree combines the study of interdisciplinary social science and sociology with psychology.

You'll gain a firm grounding in knowledge and ideas central to the social sciences and sociology. This will be complemented by an exploration of psychology through a range of real-world issues including love, sexuality and artificial intelligence, before opting to study either social psychology or counselling and forensic psychology.

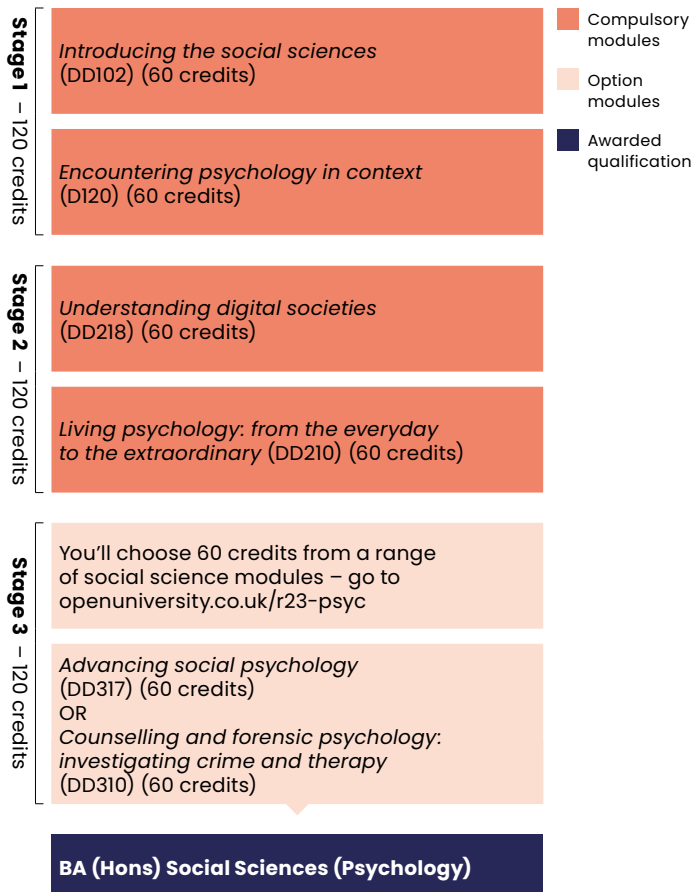

On completion of this degree, you'll be able to apply psychological and social theories, data analysis and analytical techniques to a variety of topics that affect individuals and society.

Why this qualification?

- Specialise in psychology within a broad interdisciplinary social sciences degree.
- Explore topical real-world problems to understand the behaviours of individuals and groups.
- Have the option to focus on investigating crime and therapy or social psychology.
- Gain the ability to evaluate evidence and communicate specialist ideas to different audiences.
- Opens up employment opportunities in private, public and voluntary sector organisations.

Please note that this degree is not accredited by the British Psychological Society.

BSc (Hons) Computing & IT and Psychology

Computing & IT studied with psychology can open career opportunities in various sectors.

This degree combines computing and IT with psychology, which will help you examine issues such as the social aspects of computing and IT developments.

You'll learn how psychological research addresses real-life issues, such as how psychology has both learned from and informed the development of artificial intelligence and how people interact in online environments.

Why this qualification?

- Combine complementary subjects – psychology and computing & IT.
- Choose from four focus options within the computing & IT strand.

- Build your understanding of psychological concepts and how they apply to everyday life.
- Study the growing area of internet psychology and how being online affects behaviour.

Accreditation

Accredited by BCS, The Chartered Institute for IT:

- meeting the academic requirement for Chartered IT Professional,
- and for the award of Euro-Inf Bachelor Quality Label on behalf of EQANIE.

BA (Hons) Criminology and Psychology

Criminology and psychology help make sense of crime, criminalisation, criminals and victims. This qualification will provide you with a critical understanding of both subjects.

You'll become able to question and develop your own beliefs and understandings about crime and harm. In doing so, you'll consider criminal acts and human motivations, but also look beyond them by examining the social conditions in which crime occurs, the exercise of power in response to crimes, the nature of conflicts when people interact (individually, in groups or as nations) and how and why societies determine what they will and won't tolerate.

Why this qualification?

- Helps you understand how criminology makes sense of crime, harm, criminal justice and criminalisation.
- Shows how psychology explains human interaction and conflict and interprets crime and victimisation.
- Takes a distinctive and original approach to teaching criminology and psychology.
- Enhances your employability in areas such as the criminal justice system and social services.

Please note that this degree is not accredited by the British Psychological Society.

BA (Hons) Philosophy and Psychological Studies

Philosophy and psychology seek to answer profound questions about ourselves, our minds, our behaviour, and our place in the social and physical universe.

This degree addresses a range of philosophical questions, including questions about ethics, politics, science, religion, art, and the self. It covers core approaches in social, cognitive and developmental psychology, and applied aspects of professional practice.

You'll learn to read and understand scientific and philosophical texts, use different research methods, communicate clearly and logically, and work and think independently.

Why this qualification?

- Investigate profound questions about human minds and behaviour from two complementary perspectives.
- Develop clear, logical thinking and communication skills.
- Learn to construct and analyse informed, reasoned arguments.
- Understand and use a range of research methods.

Please note that this degree is not accredited by the British Psychological Society.

BSc (Hons) Counselling

This degree allows you choose practice competencies that suit you, bring in previous study and continuing professional development from other settings, and qualify as an advanced practitioner.

This counselling degree offers a pathway for practitioner training as well as the opportunity for current practitioners, at SCoPEd framework 'Therapist A' level, to acquire new and advanced counsellor competencies.

Developed in partnership with accredited awarding bodies, the course has been designed to allow you to claim 'Therapist B' competencies according to the SCoPEd framework.

You'll engage in a unique mix of learning experiences, taking practice-based courses, which include practical, work-based learning delivered by Further Education colleges and other registered training providers, as well as knowledge-based modules with the OU.

Start dates for Stage 1 external counselling courses must be checked directly with the provider.

Why this qualification?

- Designed to meet Therapist B competencies (SCoPEd framework).
- Developed in consultation with accredited awarding bodies.
- Allows you to use previous counselling training and continuous professional development experience.
- Open practice modules let you specialise to suit your interest or professional need.

Meet our academics

Professor of Psychology and Psychotherapy Naomi Moller and Deputy Director of Teaching (Counselling) Dr Andreas Vossler are helping professional counsellors, psychotherapists and trainees to advance their skills and improve the quality of mental health support they provide.

They've created a collection of certified Continuing Professional Development (CPD) courses developed with the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP) and approved by the Counselling and Psychotherapy Central Awarding Body (CPCAB).

To learn more about how Naomi and Andreas's award-winning work is leading to better mental health support, visit openuniversity.co.uk/naomi and openuniversity.co.uk/andreas.

Foundation Degree in Counselling

The value of counselling to improve wellbeing and quality of life is increasingly recognised. From everyday worries to serious mental health issues like chronic anxiety and depression, counsellors and psychotherapists are helping us cope.

This qualification, developed in partnership with the Counselling and Psychotherapy Central Awarding Body (CPCAB), will prepare you to become a professional counsellor. It will equip you with the theoretical understanding and practical skills required to work in this field, for example supporting people with mental health problems, relationship issues and trauma.

You'll engage in a unique mix of learning experiences, including practical, work-based learning in CPCAB courses delivered in conjunction with local Further Education colleges or other registered training providers, and knowledge-based modules provided by the OU.

We offer the same programme as a Diploma of Higher Education in Counselling (W09), which might be more appropriate if you live or work in Scotland.

Why this qualification?

- Enables you to qualify as a professional counsellor and work with a diverse range of people and issues.
- Combines prior work-based learning at a local college with OU knowledge-based modules.
- If you already have the required CPCAB qualifications, you can top up to the foundation degree by studying just the knowledge-based modules.

Accreditation

This qualification provides the required hours of specified learning which – with appropriate practice, supervision and personal development – will enable you to apply for individual accreditation with the British Association for Counselling and Psychotherapy (BACP).

If you are considering this qualification you should ensure that the relevant CPCAB courses are delivered in your area, and that you are aware of the CPCAB course entry requirements and fees. Please check with CPCAB (www.cpcab.co.uk) for more details.

Qualification structure

You will study a combination of CPCAB courses and OU modules.

BA/BSc (Hons) Open

Do you want the freedom to study a range of subjects that interest you? Then our Open qualifications are ideal.

Some of the key questions in the world today require expertise from a range of subjects.

Multidisciplinary study has always been at the heart of The Open University and our Open qualifications allow you to bring together different areas of study in a completely flexible way to develop knowledge and skills.

The BA/BSc (Hons) Open allows you to choose modules from a wide range of subject areas so you can combine psychology modules with modules from other disciplines that are of interest to you. It is a degree with a difference. Free from the restriction of a subject-specific specialism, you're in control of the direction of your learning.

Why this qualification?

- Tailor your qualification to suit your needs.
- Create your own unique multidisciplinary degree and skill set.

- Adapt your study plans to match your evolving aspirations.
- Count previous university study towards your qualification.

Open qualifications and your career

Our Open qualifications equip you with a wide range of expertise, skills and capabilities through multidisciplinary study. These qualities are sought after in today's highly competitive job market. An Open qualification on your CV shows more than your level of knowledge about a subject; employers know that you are flexible and adaptable, potentially having studied across a range of topics. You'll have a highly employable set of skills and attributes, including:

- self-management and resilience
- critical thinking
- analysis and problem solving.

I'm super thankful for the opportunity to create a degree adapted to my needs and interests. The flexibility of creating your own path is simply amazing.

How you can focus your Open degree on psychology

This selection of modules shows how you can focus on aspects of psychology in combination with other subjects that are of particular interest to you.

However, this is just one example of the many combinations you can study and you're not restricted to this route.

Example route

<sup>1</sup> Whether you qualify for a BA or BSc (Hons) Open will be determined by the number of credits you have from modules suitable for a BA or for a BSc.

Register for your course

Undergraduate study

Ready to start your OU journey? Let's get going. It's as simple as:

1. Register

Go to your chosen qualification webpage, select your start date and click 'Register now'.

2. Choose your module(s)

Select the module(s) you want to study in your first year. Some may be compulsory while others may be selected from a list of options.

3. Organise your funding

Tell us how you'll be funding your chosen module. You'll find all your options at openuniversity.co.uk/ug-fees.

4. Complete your registration

Confirm your funding method. That's it – you're ready to start learning.

We recommend registering as early as possible to secure your place. Once you're registered, you'll get access to our learning tools, materials and the student support that'll help you get going.

Learn more about how to apply at openuniversity.co.uk/ug-apply.

Postgraduate study

To work towards a postgraduate qualification, register on a module that counts towards it.

1. Choose your qualification

Once you've decided on a qualification, go to our website for the full course details and entry criteria you'll need to meet.

2. Register on your first module(s)

Modules within postgraduate qualifications have more detailed entry requirements, so make sure you've read these before registering.

3. Arrange your funding

You'll find all your options at openuniversity.co.uk/pg-fees.

4. Send us evidence that confirms you meet the entry requirements

Once your evidence has been assessed and approved, your registration will be complete.

Learn more about how to apply at openuniversity.co.uk/pg-apply.

Have you studied before?

If you've studied at university level before, you might be able to count that study towards an OU qualification. This could save you time and money by reducing the number of modules you need to study with us.

Learn more at openuniversity.co.uk/credit-transfer

Useful information

Study from outside the UK

You could study with the OU wherever you are in the world.
