ESRC RESEARCH SEMINAR SERIES:
The New Regional Management: A consequence of multi-level
governance and meta-governance?

Seminar 3: University of Newcastle  29th / 30th June 2006

POST DEMOCRACY AND NEW REGIONAL MANAGEMENT

12.00  Registration and Lunch

12.45  Leslie Budd (Open University)
       Introduction to the Seminar Series

12.55  Andy Pike (University of Newcastle)
       Welcome to Newcastle; Aims of the seminar

13.00  Colin Crouch (University of Warwick)
       Post-Democracy

14.00  Paul du Gay (Open University)
       Re-Instating an Ethic of Bureaucratic Office?

14.45  Allan Scott (University of Innsbruck)
       Post-democracy or multi-level governance?

15.30  Tea

15.45  Gilg Seeber, University of Innsbruck
       Post-democracy and political action
16.30  David Byrne, University of Durham

Consultation and Incorporation or participation - engagement with citizens in post-democratic cities

17.15  Colin Crouch (University of Warwick)

Reflections

DAY TWO

9.00  John Tomaney, (University of Newcastle)

9.45  Steinar Johansen and Inger-Anne Ravlum (Institute of Transport Economics, Oslo)

Post-democracy and local and regional governance

10.30  John Tomaney, (University of Newcastle)

Publication Plans

11.00  Close