

Seminar I: INTERDEPENDENCE

29th March, Dinner, Downing College

7.00 pm	Welcome and Wine at Downing College, Cambridge University
7.15	Opening Address – Dr. Joe Smith Story of the ID project / Ambitions for the seminars / Interdisciplinary working / Different voices
7.30	Plenary Prof. Keith Richards/Prof. Jacquie Burgess/Prof. John Naughton  3 speakers (10 mins each on Science/Social Science/Technology) Discussing what work the concept/language of Interdependence can do
8.00	Dinner
	After Dinner Introductions  Round table introductions based around an object/image/quote that speaks to the theme of interdependence*  *All participants to bring an object with them
10.30	Close

30th March, Seminar Programme, British Antarctic Survey

8.45	Taxis to BAS from Downing College, Porter's Lodge
9.15-9.30 am	Coffee and Registration British Antarctic Survey, High Cross
9.30	Welcome – Prof. David Walton 'The Interdependence of the Polar Regions Science in a Global Context' A biographical response to the changes in Antarctic science
9.50	Introductions to the Seminar Activities - Chair: Dr Joe Smith
10.00	Object Lessons: the Culture and Technologies of Climate Change  by Group Facilitators Dr Nigel Clark, Dr Mark Brandon, Dr Kathryn Yusoff

	Brief introduction to the questions posed by the 'object lessons' of Antarctic materialities and processes.
10.10	Ice cores with Dr Rob Mulvey: Group 1, Group 2, Group 3 (Dr Nigel Clark)  Explanation of facilities and discussion
10.35	Representing Climate Change with Dr Kathryn Yusoff / Jean Pomereau: Group 3, Group 1, Group 2
11.00	Coffee
11.15	Mapping: Group 2, Group 3, Group 1 (Dr Mark Brandon)
11.40	Round table, Chair: Joe Smith Reflection on questions of global environmental and social change
12.45	Lunch
1.30	Talking from Practice – Interdependence in Natural Worlds Dr Mark Brandon, Dr Nigel Clark, Prof. David Walton, Dr Kathryn Yusoff  45mins Conversation in Public Participants are asked to trace the journeys of their own work and reflect on what ethical responses and responsibilities are implied by the knowledges they work with and contribute to. Is interdependence a useful reference point in these case studies?
2.15	Round Table Responses, Chair: Dr Joe Smith
2.45	Tea
3.15	Talking from Practice – Interdependence in Social Worlds Dr Clive Barnett, Dr Michael Bravo, Alex Kirby, Dr Bronislaw Szerszynski  45mins Conversation in Public
4.00	Round Table Responses, Chair: Dr Joe Smith
4.30	Closing Plenary and Responses Prof. Keith Richards/Prof. Jacquie Burgess /Prof. John Naughton  3 speakers (10 mins each on Science/Social Science/Technology) Summation of the day and discussion of the ways in which Interdependence may be a useful concept to work with in responding to globalisation and environmental change.
5.00	Drinks and Close
6.00	Taxis to Cambridge Railway Station