

O.U.P.

Programme Synopsis Radio

COURSE PRDG: No:		S100/0
Prog: Title	Introduction
Course Title	Science Foundation Course

PROGRAMME DETAILS
Tape No:	TLN03950H700	Duration	22' 58"
1st TX Date	6.2.78	Recording Date	16.1.78
Production by	John Stratford	Stereo/Mono	Mono

SYNOPSIS
Professor Pentz gives an introductory talk. It outlines some statistics on past student performance as means of encouragement and introduces the roles of CMA's, TMA's and broadcasting in the teaching scheme. Dr Ross runs through a check list of printed material the student should have received and she gives stop-press news relating to the home experiments kit.
SPEAKERS	Dr Ross
Presenter	Professor Pentz
		KEYWORDS
		Introduction Science Foundation Home Experiment Kit Tutors Counsellors Study Centres

Cont:

SERVICE INFORMATION ON CASSETTE

The programme on this tape is part of the Open University course number S100 "Science Foundation Course". It is not linked with any unit of that course and its title is "Introduction". BBC production is by John Stratford and the speakers are Professor Mike Pentz and Dr Shelagh Ross. The programme starts after the tone signal with the voice of Professor Pentz. Its approximate duration is 23 minutes.

CONTRACT RESTRICTIONS

None

CORRESPONDENCE COURSE UNIT

Title
No:		Price
Publisher

SIGNED

(John Stratford)

DATE

20 January 1978