

SCIENCE .
RADIO.

Broadcasts: Thursday 6.35 pm. (Radio 3 VHF)
Sundays 10.05 am. (Radio 4 VHF)

- Programme 22      July 4, Repeat July 22.
Title:            Nuclear Explosion and Natural Earthquake.
Content:        Sir Edward Bullard and Dr. H.I.Thirlaway describe how atomic explosions can be identified by methods used to record natural earthquakes.
- Programme 23      July 11, repeat July 29
Title:            The Finite Earth.
Content:        How long will the earth's supply of fuels and metal ores last? This question is discussed by Dr. R.C.L.Wilson, Open University, Dr. K.C.Dunham, Director, Insititute of Geological Sciences, and Dr. T.F.Gaskell, Exploration Geophysicist, BP Ltd.
- Programme 24      July 18, repeat August 5
Title:            RADIO REVIEW PROGRAMME.
Content:        This is a review programme in which student's questions and problems are answered and has yet to be recorded.
- Programme 25      July 25, repeat August 12.
Title:            Revolution in Earth Sciences.
Content:        Dr. P.J.Smith and Professor I.G.Gass introduce Professor Tuzo Wilson, University of Toronto, They discuss the significance of the conceptual revolution which has recently taken place and which is, to some extent, still taking place within the earth sciences.