

Knowledge Transfer Partnerships (KTPs)

- The KTP scheme is a part UK government-funded programme to help UK-based companies and not-for-profit organisations to improve their competitiveness and productivity through the better use of knowledge, technology and skills available within UK universities.
- You gain a talented, high-calibre graduate working for your organisation full-time, plus the equivalent of half a day per week of input from one of The Open University's world-leading academic experts.
- Longer term agreements (usually Months - Years)
- Resource and commitment required: small and medium-sized enterprises contribute around £35,000 per year, about one-third of the project costs; large businesses contribute around £55,000 per year, or half of the project costs
- Defined Schedule of Work and roles supported - activities, timescales and deliverables
- Ownership and exploitation rights of Foreground Intellectual Property is negotiable
- Further information can be found here